Love

Love is doing nothing which bruises others; it is putting the interests of others above our own. It is not being irritable, bitter, aggressive or searching for the evil in others; it is not rejoicing in injustice. It is seeking truth in all things.

- Jean Vanier, Community and Growth, p.134

What's New?

Claire and Bernadette are away at a conference October 15th – 20th in Windsor. Please pray they have a safe journey

Emmaus:

- Roma bought a new chair. It will be delivered in 2 or 3 weeks. Roma is really looking forward to it.

- Tim visited his mom. They had a wonderful time together.

- Alain went out to A&W with Tricia for lunch and had a great time. He also went shopping for new clothes

- Everyone had a lovely Thanksgiving and really enjoyed the turkey and all of the fixings.

- Please call Mande if you are interested in AVON products. She can be reached at 705-919-8545- or agcooney@hotmail.com. She is also selling Teddy Bears for Cancer research. They are $3.95 each.

Galilee

- Carole went to her sister's house on Tuesday last week to have supper with her. The ladies had a great time!

- On Sunday Henning came back from his weekend trip to Kitchener where he had an awesome time at the Oktoberfest! He taught the guys there what it means to be a real German!

- Both, Carole and Colleen, spent Thanksgiving with their families. On Monday Col went to her Mom's house for supper and Carole visited her brother and his family to have a delicious dinner with them.

- Galilee sends out a big Happy Birthday to Heather Daigle who celebrated her great day on Monday the 13th! All best wishes to you, Heather!

- The whole house is starting to get excited about Halloween! We can't wait to dress up and give out candy!

Renee wanted to share the great news that her baby nephew, Liam James, is now home! He was born September 25th, 2009. What a cutie pie!
