Keeping Feet on the Ground

It is good if people with a responsibility do [some] manual work, whether this is washing up or cooking the occasional meal. This keeps their feet on the ground and ensures they get their hands dirty. It creates new relationships; those who work with them see them as people and not just as functionaries.

- Jean Vanier, Community and Growth, p. 228

What's New?

Galilee:

- On Saturday Ken and Carole finally got to see the new Wal Mart and were pretty impressed!
- Audrey had a great weekend! On Saturday she had a wonderful time at Cana where Cathy's parents renewed their vows. On Sunday she went to church for Rev.

Ann's Birthday Party and had lunch with Jennifer C. Caruso afterwards.

- Ken and Carole went to check out Renee's apartment on Sunday. It's a really nice place!
- Henning and Carole went for a couple of rides on the weekend. Their new hobby : Campus Cruising at Laurentian!
- Jennifer has settled in at Galilee and the gang is happy to have her!

Emmaus:

- On Thursday, Eddy shared with us one of his favorite meals, which Cathy cooked for us. The meal was pork hawks.
- On Saturday that house went to the movies and saw "When in Rome". Everyone enjoyed the movie. Afterwards they went to East Side Mario's for supper.
- Tim went to Cathy's parents Anniversary party and had a good time. He brought home cake and the house enjoyed a small piece.
- Eddy, Francois, and Tricia went out shopping on Sunday. Afterwards they enjoyed a nice lunch in the food court.
- Tim and Francois went for a bus ride and went shopping for some pants.

Last week Rick Bartolucci came to Cana to present a cheque for $108,000! L'Arche Sudbury is very appreciative of this generous gift.
