Joy II

I am sure that poor people can be joyful. At times of celebration they seem to overcome all their suffering and frustration in an explosion of joy. They shed the burden of daily life and they live in a moment of freedom in which their hearts simply bound with joy. It is so too with people in community who have learned to accept their wounds, limitations and poverty. They have discovered liberation. They do not have to hide away. They are free.

What's New?

Galilee:

- On Friday morning Reverend Ann came to Galilee for a little visit. Audrey was very excited to invite her to her life plan.
- On Saturday Carole and Audrey checked out the big Dollarama on Notre Dame. They enjoyed their little shopping trip!

Later in the afternoon Colleen, Audrey, Ken, Jennifer and Inke went for a walk in Bell Park and enjoyed the absolutely gorgeous weather! We are so thankful for the sunshine!

- On Monday Heather finally came back to Galilee! After two weeks of training the Galilee Gang finally got to meet Heather's new Hearing Dog "Bryer"! We all love her already!
- After a very long break Audrey finally met with Sue K. at Bethany again. She really enjoyed spending some time with her friend.
- Audrey just loves the fact that she can check the mailbox again and go for little walks. On Wednesday her and Inke checked in at the office to make sure everybody is doing their job

Emmaus:

- Emmaus once again enjoyed the beautiful weather on the weekend with another walk at Bell Park.
- Roma and Tricia spent the afternoon together when they went grocery shopping
- Tim and Sara went to the mall and looked around. Tim got a hair cut and a new pair of sunglasses.

Bethany:

Christine and Trudy celebrating Canada winning Gold at the Olympics!

- Christine and Lorrie went to the Irish music festival at the Royal Legion Hall on Saturday and enjoyed Irish music and dancing.
- Dolores and Heather went to Dairy Queen on Saturday.
- Lorrie and Trudy went on a hay ride on Sunday with the Chelmsford Drop-in Centre and had hot dogs and baked beans.
- Natasha and Paulette went to Gongga's Grill for brunch on Sunday.

Haiti Relief Coffee Shop Thank You!

Thank you to all of the people who helped organize the coffee shop and who took part in the event.

Thanks to Blaine McCormick and his friends from the Lansing Baptist Church for providing us with the wonderful music.

Thank you to everyone who came out to support and donate to the Haiti relief.

Together we raised $940 which was matched by the Canadian government.

A Special thanks to Dolores for organizing the event and to Lynne Cronier for looking after the donations.
