Joy

Visitors are often astonished at the joy they sense at L'Arche. It surprises me too because I know how much suffering some people in our communities are carrying. I wonder then if all joy doesn't somehow spring from suffering and sacrifice. Can those who are rich and live in comfort and security with everything they need, and refuse to be close to those who are suffering, be truly joyful?

L'Arche Sudbury Homes Coordinator
Permanent
Full-time Position

L'Arche is an international network of faith-based communities founded by Jean Vanier in 1964 where men and women with a developmental disability and those who support them share life together. For more information about L'Arche Sudbury please go to www.larchesudbury.org

This person is responsible for the overall well-being and health care of 15 adults with developmental disabilities living in our three homes.

The successful candidate will be responsible for:
Supervising the House Leaders
Administration of the homes
Overseeing the maintenance of the homes
Relationships with families, friends and professionals
Directing medical care.

The Homes Coordinator is a member of the Leadership Team which collaborates in the personal development of the members and building a vibrant community life.

Requirements:

- College/University degree preferably in a related field
- 3-4 years of experience working with adults with disabilities
- Experience in providing medical care is an asset
- 2 years team experience with proven communication, collaboration and conflict resolution skills, yet self-directed within own areas of responsibility
- Ability to supervise, evaluate and direct staff
- Commitment to insuring a high quality of life for the members with disabilities

Remuneration includes salary, benefits, and a pension plan.

Application deadline: April 29, 2010
