We can be free

If, in all things, we seek out light and love, understanding and sharing, if we do not condemn ourselves, we will be free. Depression will no longer have any power over us. We will be able to take our rightful place in the world.

- Jean Vanier, Seeing Beyond Depression, p. 71

What's New?!

Galilee:

- The change has happened! Last Tuesday Shari moved out of Galilee to Emmaus where she has the opportunity to experience our community in a totally new way and to get to know the Emmaus Gang. May she be able to settle in quickly and be happy.
- On Sunday Victoria finally found her way to our and her new happy home. We'll try our best to welcome her with all our love and help her to learn everything about Galilee. We're looking forward to getting to know her better! All best wishes to you two, Shari and Victoria!
- Friday night was the first session of our new project "Living through the Arts". Colleen, Audrey, Shari, Jennifer and Inke really enjoyed their first art class with Sara King Gold and are already excited to wear their new shirts they painted! Everybody else seemed to be having a great time, too! Thanks Sara!
- On Saturday morning Jan returned to Sudbury and is currently staying at Galilee because he is stuck in Canada. The volcano cloud won't let him go back to Germany. Oh Mother Nature!
- On Sunday Colleen and Inke visited Paulette at Bethany to wish her all the best after her surgery. The ladies had coffee together and enjoyed their little visit a lot! Get well soon, Paulette! We pray for you everyday.

- Also on Sunday Raymond and Henning went shopping. Ray purchased a whole new wardrobe and is looking good in his new clothes!

Joely and Trudy enjoying an afternoon together!

Ruby helping Angélique catch up on her e-mail!

Gloria with her coworkers at the YMCA!
