One Heart at a Time

We need each other. We need these places of belonging. Hidden in our hearts is the God of compassion, the God of forgiveness, the God of peace. In Calcutta we have communities where Muslims, Hindus and Christians live together. In other areas of Calcutta, on one side there is a Muslim community, on the other a Christian community, with all the tensions you can imagine. We cannot resolve the problems of Northern Ireland, Calcutta, between Israel and Palestine. We cannot resolve the problems of Haiti and the problems in some parts of South America. But what we can do is change the world -- one heart at a time.

What's New?!

Emmaus:

- Rakish a potential assistant along with Carolyn came over for supper on Sunday! It is so nice to see new faces in the community.
- Shari's cousin Renna spent the weekend with us at the house.
- We replaced our B.B.Q. with a brand new shiny one. Great way to start off the season! We were able to use it all weekend, MMMMMMM...meat!

- Tricia's on vacation for the next 2 weeks. We hope she has a great and relaxing time.
- Alain went fishing with his dad this past weekend.
- P.S. no burnt food this week past :) We'll see what next week holds.LOL
