Week of Monday, May 2, 2011

Check out our Website: www.larchesudbury.org

Jesus is clear, consistent and insistent about creative nonviolence: "Blessed are the peacemakers. Offer no violent resistance to one who does evil. When someone strikes you on the right cheek, turn and offer the other cheek. Love your enemies and pray for your persecutors. Do not judge. Forgive and you will be forgiven. Seek first God's reign and God's justice."

"....reject violence, vengeance, retaliation, war, and killing, and instead practice universal love, boundless compassion, generous forgiveness and persistent peacemaking."

"Live at peace with everyone," we read in the letter to the Romans. "Do not look for revenge ... Rather, if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink, for by doing so, you will heap burning coals upon his head. Do not be conquered by evil but conquer evil with good." John Dear

THIS WEEK AT L'ARCHE SUDBURY

"Thank you to all of my L'Arche friends who came on April 29 to help celebrate my retirement from the Alzheimer Society. I was very honoured by your presence - hope you all had as much fun as I did!
