Praying as Self-discovery

Prayer is not, first and foremost, saying prayers. It is opening the most intimate part of ourselves to God. It is discovering that in the deepest part of our body and our being there is a source, and that source is God. God is the power that unites the universe and gives everything meaning.

L'Arche Family

L'Arche an Important Player in the World of Disability Today ?

According to Al Etmanski, a leading advocate for people with disabilities and their families in Canada for more than two decades and one of North America's best social innovators, specializing in non-governmental solutions to social problems, ten innovations have shaped the world of disability today. Among them, L'Arche has a significant place.

Regarding L'Arche, Etmanski says, "Jean Vanier's personal commitment to live in community with people who have intellectual disabilities, broke down the major barrier between helper and helpee and replaced it with reciprocity, mutuality of relationships and recognition of our common humanity

- June 4th Vocational Yard Sale at Nazareth we want your Junk
