News from Portugal

Hello to everyone from Portugal. We've been here for a week today and we are over the jet lag. We are really enjoying being out of the snow. The temp yesterday was 21 and everyday has been sunny so far. The locals say that they badly need the rain. Our apartment is really nice with two balconies .shopping for groceries and used our dictionary quite a bit. We went to Church on Sunday and it was all in Portuguese. We had fun trying to figure out the sermon. Some words are similar to French. I will keep up on your news because Tori will be forwarding the weekly newsheet to me here. I think of you all and pray for you, especially for Rob. Take care and I'll write again in a couple of weeks, after we return from Paris on Feb. 28th. Love, Claire Trahan
