Week of Monday, March 26, 2012

LAST WEEK IN REVIEW

Everyone in the community is enjoying getting outside and enjoying the sunshine. Some of the houses have started to get their deck ready for the summer and are enjoying sitting and enjoying the sun.

On Tuesday, after we enjoyed a great meal we went around the neighborhood on a scavenger hunt. We had to look for people that were also enjoying the sun, listening to music, and taking advantage of the weather by drying their clothes outside.

The best part of this weather is seeing the flowers start to poke their heads out of the ground.
