LAST WEEK IN REVIEW

Last week in L'Arche, it was a busy time. We had our community weekend and we had a video shot.

Our community weekend theme this year was about story telling. We all shared our story and place them on a "story tree"; we also heard stories from Leighton and Chris.

We also had some fun time. We had a scavenger hunt, played Jeopardy, played in the water and planted flowers.

We ended the weekend with a Fiesta. Everyone had a great time watching the skits, eating food and dancing. After we enjoy each other company for the weekend and great food, we got together at Moonlight beach for a video shot.

We are making a L'Arche "I am" video. This is going to be revealed during our Pasta Dinner.

Over the next couple of newsletters I will be sharing the photos from Community weekend and the video shoot.

What's happening?

Emmaus:

- Everyone had a splendid time at community weekend.

- Alain said he had an amazing time at his dad's and looking forward to his next visit.
- We welcomed Tricia back from her vacation, hope she rested
- Jeffery our summer assistant is settling well into our little Emmaus family.

Galilee:

- Colleen had her birthday party on Thursday. Everyone had a great time.
- Audrey went to VON and had a great time
- We had our fire alarms going off all day Tuesday, as there were changing the system.
- Everyone enjoy being at Moonlight beach for the video shoot.
- We are happy that Victoria and Maggie are back from holidays.

Bethany:

Living Through the Arts:

- Living through the Arts Program has finished and as a result we have dozens of wonderful artwork created by our core members and assistants! A few pieces will be on display at the Mackenzie Street Main Public Library. I believe they will be show beginning next week.
- I hope that you will all go out and see the works of art.

Chris
