What's happening?

Galilee:

- Everyone is getting ready for holidays. Everyone from Galilee will be leaving on Sunday. While we are gone we will be welcoming North Bay, who will be staying at our house during their holidays.

- Colleen had a great time on her holidays. She enjoyed spending time with Shari, Lynne, Latoya and Trudy. She was also glad to be home and sleep in her bed.

Bethany:

- Lynne, Latoya and Trudy had an awesome time in Toronto with Colleen and Shari. They got to visit the African lion safari, the CN tower, watched Canada day fireworks in the park and enjoyed a day out shopping. As much fun as we all had we are glad to be in our own beds.
- Lorrie had a manicure/pedicure date with her sister-in-law Diane on Saturday. Lorrie loves her blue nails and the flower on her toes.
- Everyone was extremely sad to see Dee leave to go back home to Germany.
- We celebrated Jihye's arrival where she requested chicken noodle soup

Vocational:

- Gloria and Sylvie will be leaving on holidays this weekend. This is the first time vocational core members will be going on holidays with core members from the houses.

- Patrick starts his bus training this week.

Holidays Greetings:

Yeehaw,
Greetings from Calgary!!!
After 3 days of driving, we finally arrived at the very beautiful Cenacle, L'Arche Calgary's guest home.
We started out as old men, then became grumpy old men and will return grumpier old men (and woman).
The front seat was a hot commodity... :-)
We have very much enjoyed the Stampede; rodeo events, chuck wagon races and an amazing evening music and acrobatic extravaganza. You'll have to ask us individually for our personal highlights but for now, here are a few photos to hold you over.
We're off to Banff tomorrow...See you in a week.
Dolores, Eddy, Ken, Neil, Tim and Tricia
