What's happening?
Emmaus:

- Everyone had a blast at the Christmas party.
- Alain had a great time at his mom last weekend.

- Paulette is still in a wheelchair with her broken ankle and will be for a while. She is enjoying her afternoons at Galilee.
- Tim and Eddy were great help at the tree decorating party.
- Roma is starting to count the days until she goes to visit her sister in Orillia.

Galilee:

- Everyone had a great time at the Christmas Party. Audrey enjoyed dancing the night away.
- Colleen, Audrey, Laurrette and Ann went shopping on the weekend.
- Everyone had a great time decorating the house for Christmas.
- Galilee is doing a Kris Kringle for Christmas; I wonder what we are all getting.

Bethany:

- The November birthday parties are over!!!! Lori, Latoya, Laurrette, Cathy and Chris are now officially one year older.
- It is with sad heart that we say goodbye to Latoya as she returns to her home in Jamaica. She was a blessing to have in our lives for the last three years and we will miss her zest for life , her spontaneous song and dance. We wish her well.

- Lori continues to journey with a brain tumor, she has lost a bit of her mobility but she still has her sense of humor and wit about her. She is always open to welcoming visitors. Please drop by and visit. Lori's brothers and their wives have been visiting Lori almost daily. And other families and friends have popped in to say hello.
- Tuesday night Trudy's cousin Sharon let us in Christmas caroling as we decorated our Christmas tree at Bethany.
- The lift that the Evershed family donated to Bethany has been installed. For a small fee you can take a ride on the elevator. It's not quite Wonderland but it is fun!!!!
