What's happening?

Emmaus:

- Alain is excited to go to Papa's on Sunday for the long weekend.
- Alain really enjoyed going out for a Poutine with Celine on Sunday.
- Tim went swimming with Ray and out for Fish and Chips.
- Roma had a blast at her birthday party and was super happy that her friends could make it to her party.
- Paulette really enjoyed Community Kitchen with her friends from the Vocational Program.
- We are missing Eddy and have a lot more work to do now that he is gone.

Bethany:

- Please keep Tricia and her family in your prayers as her grandfather has passed away.
- Eddie has settled in nicely at Bethany house. He has invited Colleen from Galilee over for dinner.
- Rob is looking forward to the Valentine's Day party at Emmaus on Saturday.
- The single assistants of L'Arche Sudbury went out for a Valentine's Day luncheon to support each other in our singleness.
- Assistants and core members continue to visit Lori at the Vale Hospice.
- Trudy got her new wheelchair this week. It still needs some fine tuning but she is enjoying it a lot.
- Trudy's parents phoned her on Valentine's Day.
- Cupid and her love arrow showered us with Valentine's Day chocolates.

Cana:

- Whoever is interested in using Cana for a celebration should contact Bethany House to book the space.

Vocational Program:

- Pat Monpetit was our guest chef at the Community Kitchen. Paulette,

Garnet, Gloria helped her make a delicious stew and fruit salad.

- Garnet continues to be a star employee! He loves his job at Toppers Pizza!

Galilee:

- Everyone had a great time at the 9-5 musical on Sunday.
- Kenny is looking forward to celebrating his birthday on Saturday.
- Everyone had a great time eating pancakes, chocolate sauce and caramel sauce at our Pancake Supper on Tuesday.

- Colleen, Ken and Carole enjoyed their Valentine's Day Pizza parties at programs and work.
- Audrey had a nice visit with Maureen and Shannon on Valentine's Day.
