What's happening?

Emmaus:

- Tim enjoyed the weekend at Terry's with the new puppy
- The rest of the house enjoyed Eddy's Birthday party at Swiss Chalet, complete with Duck Dynasty themed cupcakes Amanda and Eden made for him

- Paulette is now cast free! She is very excited to be walking more freely now.
- Alain is off to visit his mom for the weekend
- Roma is counting down the days till Easter when Lynn returns from Arizona.

Bethany:

- On Saturday February 23 Eddie celebrated his birthday with Emmaus and Bethany house at Swiss chalet. We especially want to thank Eden for making us the camouflage chocolate muffins they were a hit. (Who would've thought that Eddie love duck dynasty and, camouflage clothing)?
- Our co-op placement student Lily left on February 22 after a send-off luncheon hosted by Trudy. We wish her all the best in her future endeavors. Oh the Lilies of the field, how beautiful they are in the eyes of God!!

- Starting March 3 every Sunday we are going to do peoples weekly journals together. And on Tuesday have our house meetings to organize our week together.
- Keep Abby in your prayers as she's off to an L'Arche retreat.
- So do you want your pictures on the Friends of L'Arche Facebook page, then send your pictures to Chris at chriscassidy@live.ca
- Eddie got a picture of his mother and himself and has hung it proudly on his bedroom wall.

Galilee:

- Audrey and Maggie had a great time at VON, they played cards.
- Katie went to visit her mom this weekend. She had a great time seeing everyone.
- Colleen and Laurette went to visit Lorrie on Saturday. Then they went off to Costco on Sunday to do some shopping.
- Saturday night was a nice relaxing evening with take out, PJs and movies.

- Colleen's program is moving. She is really excited to be going to Treeview for program.
