Weekend June 22 & 23:

Carolyn on call

Our weekend had started off on a highly profitable note as Tim, Paulette, Lynn, Nathan and Eden purchased some of the very reasonably priced items at the Relay for Life yard sale. Tim bought a new stereo and cassette player, as well as many cassettes and books! Paulette very thoughtfully bought a new mug for Deborah, which emphasises her strong Leo personality. Nathan bought a "Friends are forever" ornament to be a gift for Amanda's camp, as well as a Sudbury Blackthorn corkscrew souvenir.

Now on a fun and relaxing note, the Emmaus house spent the rest of their day at Amanda's camp! With her new and improved styling Rockwood 8312-SS trailer, epic boat rides, roaring camp fires and horse shoes galore. Lynn schooled us at Texas horse shoes as she nailed the center over and over and over again! Everyone, including Eddie, had thoroughly enjoyed their time with the boss.

Our Sunday had started off with a splash as Lynn and Eden dived into the beach water in Moonshine beach. Crazy Paulette Audette went in the lake with her clothes on! It was the funniest and best part of her week she says. She never will forget her wild and free experience of dunking her head in the cold lake.

Later that evening we had enjoyed our day at the Relay for Life bake sale. Deborah truly shined that day as she made the most succulent desserts for such a great cause. Everyone enjoyed the barbeque and great atmosphere which had been hosted by our great friends at Galilee.

Alain returned home from his mother's late on Sunday. He was pleased to show us his gifts of new CD's from his mother. He now eagerly waits for his next outing with his father in a couple weeks.

Roma returned from Orillia Monday at noon and had come home to find a new, 80's retro style, beautiful and solid rocking chair found by Teresa. Roma instantly fell in love as she now silently and very comfortably rocks the house away.

Tim had his life plan on Monday which proved to be a great and happy time for everyone who participated to see how Tim has achieved his goals, and now eagerly tries to achieve more personal goals of his. He continually proves to be a great learner and a Man of action.

Paulette returned back to her work place at Topper's pizza. She is very happy to return back to work so she can be an advocate to the true meaning of a diligent and fun workplace.

Lynn went to visit her niece for a birthday party. She spent some time with her mom and step dad as well on that day and said she had a ton of fun meeting her family and friends.

The beautiful red roses that we had received from Lorrie's funeral still remain strong and vibrant, and they remind us of Lorrie's everlasting life in her new home.

Galilee:

Everyone had a fabulous weekend. It started with a visit to the Vocational yard sale. Everyone had a great time looking at the things they could buy. Carole bought a plate that tells part of the Galilee story from the bible.

On Sunday, everyone had a great time enjoying the sun and everyone's company at the Relay for Life Fundraiser that was held at Galilee. We enjoyed hot dogs, pop and other treats. We made around $376.00.

Colleen got to enjoy a five day weekend. They were repaving the driveway at her program so she couldn't go for a couple of days.

Bethany:

The Beaton's went to Bethany for dinner and had a really nice time. I am attaching a couple of photos. Callum especially loved Abhilash.
