What's happening?

Emmaus:

This week had been a very outgoing week, as the Emmaus house went off to Bell Park with our friends at Galilee on Saturday. We had a little picnic and played some sports. Kenny Kidd showed off his fantastic football throw to us, and Coleen and Alain played catch together. Lynn met an old friend from her school and we were able to talk to him and his parents. They were very nice people so we exchanged numbers so that we can show them the wonderful L'Arche experience at our home.

On Sunday, Chris invited us up to his camp for the afternoon, which is looking very spiffy and inviting. Paulette loved being there so much that she was planning to sleep in the top bunk, go swimming, go into the sauna, and roast marshmallows and fish. But instead we had created a massive fire that burned well into Sunday morning.

On Canada Day, we spent our time playing some horseshoe games with red and white projectiles. We later then had supper at a Fish and Chip stand and went to Amanda's camp for the duration of the day. It was a great relaxing weekend visiting many places and seeing our friends.

On Tuesday we very much enjoyed having our prayer night outside at Galilee. Later at night, Lynn went out to the movies with her mother and stepfather. They went to see "Now you see me", which she very much enjoyed because of the magical / illusionary elements incorporated throughout the film, she recommends it to anyone who enjoys magic.

Tim's 51st birthday is being celebrated on Thursday this week. His Mother and Sister plan on celebrating this special day with him and some of his close friends around the community. Happy Birthday Tim!

Roma will be going to Orillia with her sister this weekend. We hope she has a safe, fun and relaxing time with her sister.

We are also welcoming a new relief assistant at the Emmaus house; Mandy Cooney has returned from maternity leave and will be spending her time helping out around the house. She previously had lived with Paulette, so she is very excited to relive the experience once more.

Galilee:

Galilee had a really nice Canada day weekend. We went to Bell Park on Saturday and then went to Moonlight beach on Sunday. While at Moonlight, Colleen went to the water and dipped her toes in the water. On Monday, we enjoyed a quiet day and enjoyed making a craft together.

Katie, Laurette, Colleen, Audrey and Chrystal got a private prayer service by Rev. Ann because of a time mix up.

We are welcoming Mike and Steve from L'Arche Daybreak for the weekend. Tasha built a relationship with Mike during her weeks at Daybreak for Growing in the Mission.

We would also like to say a big thank you to Emmaus and Bethany for helping us with our Laundry.

We had a busy week full of visitors over for supper. On Wednesday Karen, her children, and Claire came over for supper. We also welcome Audrey's friends from church Irene and Shannon.

Bethany:

The Bethany gang has been taking complete advantage of the nice weather and can often be found on the front deck for supper. We hope summer is finally here to stay.

Rob has recently returned from a weekend visit to Calabogie with Chris where he spent time with Peggy and his dad who he says looks like Santa Clause with his white beard.

Jennifer Garrat visited and brought beautiful jewels from Mexico; it was really nice to see her again.

Claire and Eddy made raspberry rhubarb pies and Eddy is on the lookout for a pie thief because they disappeared mysteriously fast. ;-)

Helen' daughter Amie celebrated her birthday at Cana and we all enjoyed meeting and spending time with her family over a delicious meal (including pie *wink wink*).
