Everyone had a great time attending Kayla's wedding. All of Galilee agreed that she was a gorgeous bride.

After having a busy Saturday, the house spent a quiet day at home and cleaned the bedrooms.

Carole had a nice visit with her brother at the house. He brought her a cup of tea from Tim Horton's.

Colleen had a nice visit with her mom on Thursday and she received a new pair of shoes and a bag of cheezies. She is also excited to go to supper at Bethany on Thursday.

As the Wednesdays and Thursday keep coming we are getting to know our co-op student a little better and she is getting to know us better.

A letter from Father Steve:

When I was blessed to serve Holy Redeemer Parish and I got to know the L'Arche Community of Sudbury I felt, as it says in that newsletter; "a true understanding of the courage to do something extraordinary, the courage to fight with diseases, the courage to make people stand on their own, the courage to believe in someone, the courage to fight against all odds" (by: Suruchi Puri) Over the years since I have been engaged in much ministry, most recently a lot of hospital ministry, which I love. The Hospital ministry is just an effort at the outreach we are invited to do for our community here in Saskatoon, SK.

The gift of seeing the L'Arche Community sitting in the front pew at Holy Redeemer or hearing Larry phone me and inviting me over with words like; "Hay Priest, you want to eat!" really gave me a great understanding of how our world is blessed by so many. I so want to thank you for inviting me to moments of prayer and I hope your wonderful newsletter keeps inspiring for years to come, thanks Fr. Steve
