Tim spent last Monday at Galilee as Ray was away, Tim loved being there!

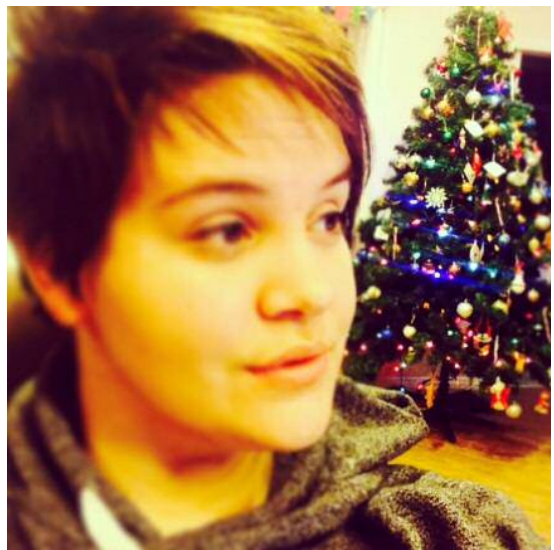

Alain will be at moms tomorrow for the weekend and is very excited to go!

Paulette spend the evening with Suzanne, this past Wednesday, they went for dinner, shopping, ringing bells and caroling...Paulette very much enjoyed herself

Most of Emmaus has accomplished their Christmas shopping and are ready for gift wrapping and giving...yea...that's the best part!!

Sherry came Wednesday for her introduction dinner...we are all excited that she will move in officially on Monday...Welcome to Emmaus Sherry!

Galilee:

Last Monday everyone had a great time listening to music and stuffing the bi-annual newsletter. We finished off the night with a bowl of soup and some cookies.

On Wednesday, we said good bye to Ann and Amber. We wish them the best of luck with everything that they do.

Thursday was the Christmas bowling party. Everyone had a great time and won some fantastic prizes.

Bethany:

We had a Hollywood star at Bethany.
"Jeffrey Sparrow"

On Tuesday, everyone at Bethany joined building gingerbread house and it was successful! However, it was not a house anymore after 5 mins..... During the prayer, rob was Santa clause! HoHoHo

Vocational:

Garnet, Paulette and Suzanne had a jolly ol' time on Wednesday. They went out to dinner at Fionn McCool's, went shopping for placemats and gift cards as part of the Community Outreach for Foyer Notre Dame and then topped off the evening by ringing the bells for the Salvation Army! Paulette entertained Wal-Mart customers and kind donators to her vocal styling of Christmas Carols and Garnet was so friendly I think the Wal-Mart greeter was nervous he would be replaced!
