What's happening?

Emmaus:

News Year's Eve was a fun day and evening for everyone at Emmaus...good times at the Cana count down party...then a very yummy Chinese food take out New Year's dinner with lots of noise and cheers!

Since all the Christmas and New Year's excitement some of us went to Bethany to say goodbye to Brandon and hello to Matty the new student...everyone had a great time and wished Brandon well in all his future endeavors!

We are keeping Maggie and Virginia in our thoughts and prayers wishing them both well, also Claire and Neil as they grieve the loss of loved ones.

Emmaus has put all our Christmas decor away and we are all back to the daily grind of routines, work and programs!

Happy New year everyone from Emmaus!

Bethany:

Vampire Rob and Jeff. Actually, the pictures are the result of eating spicy food.

After living through the art Eddy was a rock star with some face piercings.

Galilee:

Maggie K and Eddy rang the Salvation Army bell at Food Basic before Christmas

Everyone had a great Christmas Holiday. Kenny traveled to Toronto to spend Christmas with his sister Ann, Katie went to her mom's for Christmas, Colleen's mom came for a visit, and Carole's brother and sister came for a visit.

We have welcomed a new Waterloo co-op student Faith, who will be with us until April. We also welcomed Jeannine back to the house.

This weekend the house went and played Bingo. They had a great time.

We made snowman face cookies over the break
