Winter Fest 2014

Hello friends and foes (PS dogs are welcome)

I would like to invite people out to my camp on Joe Lake for a winter fest on March 23, 2014.

Weather permitting we would have tobogganing / sliding, the bonfire, sauna, snowshoeing, plus Chile and Hot Dogs. (If possible I will create a rink on the ice so people can skate or play hockey (weather permitting))

All are welcome, children, teens and adults. Current assistants, past assistants, future assistants.

I will provide hot chocolate, hot coffee and hot steeped tea. Any cold drinks you can bring yourself.

People could arrive any time after 12pm and we would eat at 4 PM.

Unfortunately with the snow it may not be too accessible for people in wheelchairs. We could back wheelchair vans right up to the camp and then people could go up the ramp into the camp.

A note from: Recruitment Committee

A big thank you to Natasha, Ken, Karen and Maggie for representing L'Arche at the College Boreal and Cambrian College job fairs in February.

Ray, Karen and Jasmine have been working on an "awesome" new pamphlet for us in both English and French. It will be great to have updated material to bring out to our community events.

We welcomed Veronica this month as a relief assistant for Galilee House. She will be training with us soon.

Sarah has been a night awake/relief assistant for Bethany House since November. We are happy that she has joined our community. She says:

"I would like to say that I'm enjoying working for L'Arche very much. I love the members, staff, and just the very homey and welcoming atmosphere. I see myself working here for a very long time. So I would like to sincerely thank you for hiring me, and giving me this chance to work with an amazing community like L'Arche."

Sincerely, Sarah Aubrey.
