What's happening?

Sherry suffered a little L'Arche April fools fun to start off the month with a little car toilet papering from some culprits that will go unnamed for now!

Paulette and Maggie K went to the movies this past weekend and enjoyed the girl time together!

Alain went home last weekend to spend time with his papa...which is always a good weekend for him.

Tim is always happy to see Alain come home from his papas on Sunday and receives cookies from Alain's papa! Definitely a good day for Tim!

Lynn went home last weekend to spend time with her mom and family.

Roma is enjoying some peace and quiet now that we are having a much appreciated break from the construction, however our new bathroom is lovely and we are all excited to try out the new shower.

We here at Emmaus were saddened at the loss of our past board member Paul and were grateful to be able to attend the church service for him.

We were also deeply saddened for Teresa's loss of her dad we are keeping her and her family close in thought and prayer through this difficult time for all of them.

Emmaus was happy to see Rob at prayer and will continue to keep him in our thoughts and prayers that he continues to feel better.

We are also keeping Maggie C in our prayers and are hopeful for a positive outcome and recovery for her. Thanks to everyone who is participating in the baking chain and helping to send Maggie love and bake goods!

We all enjoyed very much having Tori at our house last Friday to catch up on scrapbooking with Roma, Helen and Tim and for supper and a movie. It was a fun time!

Galilee:

On Wednesday, the house enjoyed the spur of the moment dinner at East Side Mario's. Everyone really enjoyed having cheese cake for desert.

Everyone enjoyed getting a chance to have a four day weekend because of the weather last week. After all that time home, everyone was glad to go back to work/program.

Everyone really enjoyed seeing Maggie C at bowling.

Galilee is getting repairs and falling apart at the same time. We really enjoyed having the construction guys at the house fixing the bathroom but we are glad that they are done. Carole also discovered a leak in the roof while she was sitting on the futon before supper on Sunday.

Colleen and Laurrette had a great time at church on Saturday night; the slight problem is that they sat in the chapel because they were a little late. They also saw Bernadette at church.

On Saturday, we all celebrated Earth day, but not really by choice, the power went out on us. Speaking of power outages, on Monday after Arise, everyone went to make lunch but they couldn't because of no power, everyone ended up going to MICs for supper.

Bethany:

Everyone enjoyed having Suzanne over on Thursday to help out.
