Emmaus:

Roma is feeling much better and has finally returned to Christian Horizons this week

Tim went to the eye and is feeling sniffy this week due to allergies

The Emmaus van is in for repair. It is having some break issues. Thanks to vocational for letting us use the white van!

Lynn is looking forward to supper at Bethany with Chrystal and Neil on Friday as well as some shopping and coffee time!

Paulette made cinnamon buns at VON this week and was excited to bring some home with her.

Alain is looking forward to spending some time at his mom's this weekend! We are keeping her in our thoughts as she has her eye surgeries. Hoping she will make a good recovery,

We are all keeping Jen in our thoughts and prayers at this time of loss for her and her family.

Helen and Rachel were very fortunate to attend Sherry's Grad ceremony this past Wednesday. As well had the privilege of seeing a few other students whom have passed through the L'Arche doors in the past year graduate as well! It was a beautiful event and very fun to see the familiar faces of our students and be able to appreciate their accomplishments. We are especially proud of Sherry who has come to L'Arche first as a 3 week placement, then relief, then, 4 month live in student here at Emmaus and finally a permanent live in assistant! Yay Sherry!!!! Among the many graduates this day were...Chelsey, Danielle, Veronica, and Lilly! Chris is cooking up a grad dinner storm for Sherry on Thursday some yummy chicken cacciatore with pasta and best of all Carrot cake!

Bethany:

We had a birthday party for Abhilash on Tuesday! It was a great to celebrate and be with everyone! Happy 34th birthday again

Rob was heading outside to see grass cutting! Can you see the flowers on his ear?:(

Rob

helped me making supper and while making supper, we sang "Jesus loves me" and "yellow submarine".

Galilee:

Last weekend Emmaus came over for supper, everyone had a great time eating together.

The house went to play Bingo on Saturday. Everyone had a good time but no one won anything. We also enjoy shopping at the Mall. Katie got some new clothes and bedding.

We all enjoyed having Gary over for supper on Wednesday. It was nice to see him and catch up.

Part of the house went down the hill on Saturday and enjoyed looking at the yards on our street. Everyone received a free gift from one of the yard sales.

Saturday night, the house went to Cana to celebrate Neil's birthday with him. IT was a great night and everyone got to enjoy DQ ice cream cake for dessert.

Our Children Our Future awards ceremony. Magali Mallette was chosen as a “Champion for Children” after L’Arche and other organizations in the city nominated her. People might remember that she adopted us 2 years ago and instead of getting birthday gifts, she asked her friends for items that we requested.

Volunteer Week Kick off in April. We celebrated all of the wonderful volunteers in the Sudbury Community. It wouldn’t have been complete without Gloria who volunteers at the YMCA Day Care and the Lafrance-Robinson Family who volunteer at Galilee. We thank you for all you do!

Message from Claire

Well, I'm almost through this adventure of a broken ankle. My final cast which is a walking cast that I can take off for a shower, sleeping and believe it or not, driving is coming off on Friday, 30th. I will have a few physio therapy sessions and should be good as new soon.

It has been quite the experience. I welcomed a new puppy, Mia, a playmate for Noee on March 13th and had my little accident on April 2nd. Not exactly the thing to do at any time but training a new puppy while in a wheelchair with a big plaster cast on? This one got away with a few things! My sisters were a great help and deserve a lot of credit because she is turning out okay and will still make a "dog" someday.

Many people helped along the way, some with flowers, casseroles, soups, goodies and so many well wishes.

Joanie and Yvan even came to clean my house. I also received many beautiful cards. The meaning of community and family came through once again. I'm really grateful and I thank you all. Love, Claire Trahan

Note: I have been called up to work for Elections Ontario as receptionist until June 15th or so. It's every day and involves long hours but I find it interesting enough. Another new world to me. People at Galilee have been great at letting my puppies out etc... Thanks again.
