What's happening? Emmaus:

Paulette and Lynn enjoyed the Santa Claus Parade last weekend with Sherry and Rachel. We collected lots of candy canes! Coming back from the parade, Helen baked us some peanut butter cookies coupled with hot chocolate with a kick of mint!

Tim and Chris had a wonderful time at Terry's surprise birthday party. However, Tim decided not to see Santa at the Santa Claus Parade but surely he will on Christmas Day!

Alain spent this weekend with his Mom. He was happy to come back to Emmaus!

Roma had a quiet weekend with Helen. Rest assured that she enjoyed the smell of cookies being baked in the oven!

Bethany:

Trudy, Jeff and Eddy's life plans are done. It was a great moment to share their goals and to be supportive.

Trudy sent Christmas gifts to her family. We hope they love them.

Galilee:

Everyone had a great time at Cana for Community Night. Everyone loved being back at Cana and enjoyed a great dinner.

Galilee is all looking forward to the Anniversary Party tonight. We all look forward to see you there.

Colleen, Audrey, Heather and Rhonda dropped off the hats, scarves, and boots that they collected at the library this week. Carole and Rhonda dropped off the socks at DeSimone for the homeless on Friday.

November's Community Night

Many thanks goes out to Rachel and the wonderful group of Ladies who ever so graciously, as part of their ARISE program, hosted our Bi-Annual Solidarity Night!

They cooked up delicious Shepard's Pie, baked apples and scrumptious fruit cake. After supper they all treated us to a wonderful sing-a-long!

The entire evening was a huge success!

We give thanks for our friends in L'Arche Communities around the world who we keep in our prayers each day and for the gift of these beautiful ladies.
