picture that I took of Paulette and Yvan as they watched the 1st period of the play-off game between Montreal and Ottawa. Thankfully, Montreal ended up winning. Yvan was very happy!

This past week at Emmaus, we said Good Bye to Sherry. She will be super missed by us all. We are also all very happy for her to be heading off to L'Arche Halifax for a whole new experience. Best of luck to you Sherry, we love you. Paulette asked to be packed her in suitcase.

What's happening?

Emmaus:

Paulette enjoyed super at Joan and Yvan's this week. Afterwards, she and Joan sang at the piano for a while and read a book together called "With These Hands!" but the real fun always starts when Paulette and Yvan go downstairs to watch some hockey. Tonight they dressed for the game! I thought you might enjoy this

All of Emmaus, as well as some of Sherry's friends and family went to Buzzy Browns for a farewell supper last Friday. Everyone had a great time. Tim especially loved the cake.

Paulette and Tim went to visit Bernadette in North Bay a couple of weeks ago with Helen. We all had a nice salmon lunch with a lovely salad, and enjoyed all the sister's company, so many of them were very happy to see Paulette and Tim. We also had lunch with Sister Rita.

Tim bought himself a new cool iPad.

Galilee:

Spring cleaning is in full swing at Galilee. We have started to clean bedrooms, rake leaves and sweep the drive way.

Everyone but Kenny enjoyed going to church on Sunday. Kenny enjoyed going grocery shopping.

Galilee enjoyed the nice weather over the weekend. We pulled out our deck swing and enjoyed the sun and the first BBQ of the year.

Jen and Bowser came over for a visit. Carole and Jasmine enjoyed the chance to hold him.
