What's happening?

Emmaus:

Roma went with her sister, Lynn, for a long weekend last week and came home refreshed and happy from her time away!

Tim and Suzanne went to Richmond Hill Daybreak and participated in the walk for hope! Tim had a great time and loved his new T-shirt and awesome green hat that matched his new green back pack!!

Paulette worked her last shift at Toppers this past week! And is looking forward to what the future holds for her! Her friend at Toppers gave her a lovely new watch as a parting gift!

Sherry has been updating us on her experience in Halifax so far, loves her new house and looks comfy in her new room.

Lynn celebrated her birthday May 5th; she enjoyed being celebrated at her program and went out for supper with her mom as well! We will celebrate at Emmaus with Lynn on Sunday!

Alain spent last weekend with his mom! He loves to get away for the weekend!

Tim, Paulette and Lynn went to the bowling banquet; they enjoyed music, food and friends as the bowling season approaches an end! This week is also the last bowling day!

We are all looking forward to the Community weekend! See you all there!

Galilee:

On Sunday, we welcome Sandra to the house. She is our new Waterloo placement student.

Audrey is happy that she started her new program. She is really enjoying being able to go out every day.

On Tuesday night everyone except Carole enjoyed going to the final Bowling BBQ and Dance and Thursday, they enjoyed the last bowling night of the season.

On Wednesday, everyone enjoyed going to Bell Park for a walk and to enjoy the lovely weather.

Everyone is excited for Community Weekend, and spending the time with each other.
