We celebrated Lynn's birthday last week! Everyone had a great time! Celine was so kind to make Lynn's cake. It was a Gluten Free Oreo cheese cake and was so yummy!

Alain went to his papa's last weekend, and celebrated his birthday with him. This week we will be celebrating his birthday at home with his L'Arche friends and family.

Paulette has officially moved on from her job at Toppers, and is now an active member of the day program at Cana with Karen, Suzanne, Cathy and Heather!

Rachel has returned home from GIM, she was excited to share her experiences there with us.

Olivia is adjusting to L'Arche life and is a great addition to our home and our team.

We are all keeping Rob in our thoughts and prayers and hoping that we will see him feeling better soon.

Tori blessed us with her presence for supper last week, and made peanut butter cookies...so yummy!! Thanks Tori!

Olivia will be taking over the newsletter for her remaining time with us! I hope she will enjoy sending stories and pictures of all the great time we have at Emmaus and in the community!

Bethany:

Eddy went to Manituolin Island with Jen McC for his mother's burial. We keep on praying for Eddy and his family.

Jennifer G's father passed away. We are keeping her and her family in our prayers.

We are looking forward to Robert coming home. We are patiently waiting for his discharge from the hospital.

Galilee:

We had a quiet weekend. We enjoyed some time on the deck bowling, blowing bubbles and eating outside.

Carole and Katie both enjoyed going to the Hanmer Carnival, they both enjoyed the rides.

Audrey is still getting out of the house every day she is doing this through the new Community Participation Program.
