

New Year s edition

Check out our Website: www.larchesudbury.org

Our New Year s celebration this year happen on December 31 in the middle of the afternoon.

We enjoyed wonderful finger food prepared by the different houses and CPP.

After the food was ate we played card BINGO. At the beginning it seemed that Galilee might win all of the rounds due to Victoria, Colleen and Kenny winning the first couple of rounds but everyone ended up winning a prize.

After BINGO, we enjoyed a dance party.

Once the dancing was over, we counted down to mid night and ended the party with a balloon drop.

Christmas Edition

Check out our Website: www.larchesudbury.org

I wasn't in the house this year for Christmas, but I believe that everyone had a great time.

Tim and Lina from Emmaus moved up to Galilee due to them being the only ones home at Emmaus.

Kenny's holidays started out with a long day. Due to the weather, Kenny's flight to his sister's was rescheduled a couple of times, but he eventually made it.

Here are some pictures from the Christmas celebration.

It is with sadness and heavy heart that I announce the death of Sister Rita; she passed away early Christmas day surrounded by the love and fellowship of the Sisters of St. Joseph at the Motherhouse in North Bay. In the last month, with Rita's health failing, family and friends visited with her to express their love and gratitude for her in their lives. Sister Rita, with Roma Griffin and Peggy Keaney where the founding members of L Arche Sudbury (November 82), if Peggy Keaney carried the vision and the passion of L Arche, it was Roma and Rita who quickly became the heart of Emmaus house. Rita has the gift of creating home, for welcoming, caring for others and created places of belonging. Sister Rita was house leader at Emmaus for many years, until she became the unofficial grandmother of L Arche Sudbury. She lived at the apartment at Galilee for many years, Since moving to the motherhouse a number of years ago, members of L Arche Sudbury would visit Rita in North Bay. Rita always kept the people of L Arche Sudbury close to her heart and in her prayers. Her presents will be missed by Chris
