

Good Neighbours Awards 2024

By Darrell Marsh

On Wednesday, April 3rd, 2024, Kitty Kehoe attended, as a guest of honour, MPP Jamie West's Good Neighbours Awards at the Hilton Garden Inn. I had the pleasure of joining Kitty at the event where MPP West recognized kind Sudburians in his annual Good Neighbours Award. This was the first in-person award since it began in 2020. I can say that Kitty was most excited to be attending an event hosted by her friend Jamie. I too was excited to share time with Kitty, especially at an awards ceremony!

It was the first in-person award since it began in 2020. During the celebration on Wednesday, MPP West invited Kitty Kehoe up to the podium to thank her - he credited Kitty, as the inspiration for the award.

"Shortly before the pandemic, Kitty invited me to an event at L'Arche that celebrated her journey with cancer," MPP West recalled. "During her speech, she was speaking and said, 'you have to look for the good,'" "That got us thinking about how we recognize the good in our city and what more we can do."

The Sudbury Good Neighbours Awards was started during the pandemic, shortly after this conversation with Kitty. The criteria for the award is fairly open, and simply looks for anyone who demonstrates tenacity and a commitment to helping others. He's grateful for people like Kitty, who demonstrate kindness every day and inspires those around her.

Kitty had the opportunity to address the room about being a "Good Neighbour" and shared from her heart, the following:

"It's in your heart and it's in your soul and in every world, you be honest in your love. Amen."
